

Global Studies Scholarship Fund

Goal

The Lincoln University Office of International Programs and Services Study Abroad Support Scholarship Fund encourage student participation in study abroad programs by making available funds, based on need.

Awards Cap: $3000

Students may apply for awards up to $3000 to be used toward the cost of their study abroad program. The specific amount of the award will be determined by the Funds Selection Committee in review of the student's application.

Eligibility

All eligible applicants must have utilized all other sources of financial aid (loans, grants e.t.c.) It is important that they have not appeared before the Judicial Review Committee for Level II Violations. Applicants must review and sign off on the "Study Abroad Guidelines" as established by the Office of International Programs and Services. Completed applications must be submitted to OIPS by April 1st for summer and fall programs, and by November 30th for spring programs. Applications received after the deadline for each semester or summer session will not be eligible.

Selection and Notification

Applicants will be notified within one week after the award recommendation has been authorized.

TERMS OF AGREEMENT

By accepting the Global Studies Scholarship, I hereby agree to the following terms:

- I agree to participate in the Study Abroad Convocation
- I agree to participate in one Study Abroad Interest Session
- I agree to complete my programs of study unless I encounter a serious emergency. I understand that this emergency, short of serious illness or death, would have to be approved by Dr. Abbas Mazzaoui, Academic Director of Study Abroad and Ms. Constance Lundy, Director of International Programs and Services.
- Failure to follow any of these conditions could result in the re-payment of a portion of my scholarship.

“I have read the Office of International Programs and Services Study Abroad Guidelines and agree to comply with the terms of this scholarship.”
